

THE NEED FOR LAND ADMINISTRATION EDUCATION

- Governments recognise more and more the role of land and the importance of good land administration
- Training institutions and universities are stimulated and supported by their governments to set up programs in land administration
- Remarkable growth of academic programs in land administration in Eastern Africa in the last five years

THE ROLE OF YOUNG GRADUATES

- Master of Science Programme in Land Management, at The Royal Institute of Technology (KTH) in Sweden.
- Capacity building and supporting development of national Bachelors programs in Land Administration at universities in 4 countries:
 - Bahir Dar University (Ethiopia)
 - Kenya Polytechnic University College (Kenya)
 - Ardhi University (Tanzania)
 - Makerere University (Uganda)

THE EASTERN AFRICA LAND ADMINISTRATION ACADEMIC NETWORK

- Young graduates from KTH returned to their Universities to become lecturers and to develop Land Administration Bachelor's programs
- In 2010 the SIDA supported project with KTH came to an end:
 - The four Eastern African universities decided to continue to work together in order to harmonise their BSc programs in Land Administration
 - Start of the Eastern Africa Land Administration Academic Network (EALAN).
