

Real Estate Development Agreements in Sweden

Maria ULFVARSON ÖSTLUND, Sweden

Key words: real estate development agreement, commitments, implementation, real estate management, real estate planning, urban development.

SUMMARY

Land management or management of real estate also means development of land for new purposes.

Real estate development agreements in Sweden regulate development of an area of land. These agreements play an important role in the development process. The paper gives an overall description of the use of real estate agreements in Sweden. The paper summarises an analysis of structure and content of real estate development agreements.