

History of Training of Surveyors in Nigeria

Winston A. AYENI, Nigeria

Key words: Education, Professional practice

SUMMARY

In Nigeria the training of Surveying Professionals started way back before independence (1960). What started from in-house departmental hands on training with certificate in chaining has developed into Doctorate degrees programmes in Surveying and Geo-informatics. There are twelve Universities, twenty Polytechnics, three Ministerial schools and one international school.