Peer Review Process at the FIG Events, No. 1

- The peer review process was used for the first time for an FIG WW or a congress in Stockholm.
- Chryssy Potsiou coordinated the process and has prepared a report on the experiences.
- It is essential for the people from academic world to get permission to attend and also the only way to attract academics to the conferences.
In Stockholm, 62 papers were offered for peer review. 39 peer reviewed papers were presented at the conference (about 10%).

Decision was taken in Stockholm to improve the FIG WW peer review process.

The peer review process will not change the role of FIG or the basic concept of conferences, but it offers additional options to those that need academic merits.
A PR will be offered only for the FIG WW or congress and for specific Commission Workshops when required, but not for FIG regional conferences.

The PR will be blind. Reviewers can be Drs and/or Profs.

The current list of reviewers and the editorial board for each WW should be on the FIG website.

The PR procedure needs to be automated, since great number of papers may be submitted in the future.
The most important points of the decision (No. 2)

- An FIG list of keywords is necessary for that. The list will be used both by the reviewers and the authors in order to declare their scientific fields.
- The list of active reviewers for each WW will be named „Scientific Committee”.
- The Editorial Board will be responsible for improving the peer review process, solving any problem during the PR and deciding about the final results.
The most important points of the decision (No. 3)

- Council members: President Prof. Stig Enemark, Vice Presidents Prof. Paul van der Molen and Matt Higgins will supervise the work of the Editorial Board as it happened until now.
- Chief Editor and FIG Office will finalize the deadlines for Eilat WW.
- Reviewers will be asked to document their decision clearly and in details.
- Commission chairs need to increase their list of academic members and propose them for the review. Identify reliable academics from various regions as well.
- Reviewers will be asked to submit a very short CV and the keywords related to their scientific field.
The most important points of the decision (No. 4)

- Authors will be asked to submit the form with their corrections in order to speed up the checking of the revised papers by the editorial board.
- Language aspects are also very important.
