HEAT INSULATION OF DWELLING HOUSES

Anita Sideļska
Latvia University of Agriculture,
Latvia

Breakdown of Latvian dwellings according to the construction year

- 1946-1970: 22%
- 1971-1980: 19%
- 1981-1990: 20%
- 1991-2000: 7%
- >2000: 5%
- <1919: 14%
- 1919-1945: 13%
Housing fund breakdown by the number of apartments in the house

Parts of a dwelling house

- Undivided part of a dwelling house (co-ownership)
  - Communal areas
  - External walls
  - Engineering communications
  - …
  - Roof

- Divided part of a dwelling house (single property)
  - Apartment No 1
  - Apartment No 2
  - …
  - Apartment No…
CONCLUSIONS

- substantial heat saving and improved energy-efficiency
- long-term management of dwelling houses
- improvement of the quality and sustainability of the housing fund
- development and upkeep of the construction industry

Thank you for your attention!

Anita Sidļska
anitasidelksa@inbox.lv